Arkansas Crash Kills GC Sergeant And 3 In Family

Daughter, 12, is Only
Survivor; 37 Local
Accidents Injure 14

The nation's holiday weekend traffic toll of 536 fatalities included a Granite City Army Depot sergeant and three members of his family who died in a crash occurring in Arkansas. Locally, 37 crashes were reported by municipal, county and state police, who said 14 persons were injured.

Six persons killed at 9:50 a.m. Sunday on Interstate Route 55 three miles east of Little Rock in northeast Arkansas included Master Sgt. Norris E. Henderson Sr. of the Granite City Army Depot, his wife, son and daughter, all of Granite City, and his mother-in-law, a resident of Ruleville, Miss.

Also maintaining residence in Ruleville, Sgt. Henderson was one of the soldiers attending a dance at the second annual banquet given by Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce directors to salute outstanding enlisted men at the Depot.

Those killed besides Sgt. Henderson, 37, were his wife, Mary Rose, 36, daughter, Wanda, six, and son, Norris E. Jr., three years old. Mrs. Henderson's mother, Mrs. E. E. Story, 61; and Ronnie Layton, 21, Dexter, Mo.

The Hendersons' daughter, Gloria, 12, has fractures of both legs and a possible skull fracture and was in critical condition. She remains a patient at a Blytheville hospital and is to be transferred today to the Millington, Tenn., Naval Hospital to be near relatives there.

Arkansas state police said a pickup truck, traveling south on a northbound lane, collided with an auto driven by Martin Sims, 43, Portageville, Mo. The truck then ran head-on into the Henderson car, troopers related.

Mrs. Layton was a passenger in the truck, driven by Richard Snyder of Bluefield, Mo., who is in critical condition at a Blytheville hospital.

The Hendersons were returning to Granite City after visiting relatives in Ruleville. The family resided at quarters at the Depot, where Sgt. Henderson has been stationed since December 1965. In the Army 19 years, he was promoted to master sergeant last week.

Funeral services for the four members of the Henderson family and Mrs. Story are being conducted at 2 p.m. today at Ruleville.

Memorial services were scheduled for 3 p.m. today at the Granite City Army Depot chapel here. Sgt. Henderson was maintenance non-commissioned officer of the Headquarters Company, 89th General Support Group, he was on a three-day weekend pass.

Both Arms Fractured
Jackie Thomas, 16, of 2610 Myrtle avenue, suffered fractures of both arms when his truck was sideswiped by an auto driven by Donald Amann, Ruleville, who was passing on Route 139 a half mile north of Interstate 270 at 5:45 a.m. today. Both drivers lost control and the vehicles went down an embankment. Thomas was thrown from the truck. He

Fireworks Injure 4; Display Hits Woman at Park

Four Quad-Cityans were injured in holiday fireworks misadventure, including Mrs. Irene Kessler, 47, of 2322 State street, who suffered burns about 9:15 last night when a "flying pigeon" display piece broke loose at Wilson Park and struck her as she was among the estimated 6000-10,000 spectators.

Mrs. Kessler suffered burns to her chest, neck and left arm when struck by the display piece. She was standing about 200 feet away from the groundwork. An ambulance was dispatched to the park, and she was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital where she was given emergency treatment and was admitted. The "pigeon" was to have flown straight into the air.

About the same time, a father and son, both at their home when a firecracker exploded prematurely. Given treatment at the hospital were Everett Cottrell, 29, of 2328 Sunset drive, who told police he was starting to throw a firecracker when it went off in his right hand.

His son, Chris, 3, was standing nearby and suffered three small burns to his chest and head. The father sustained second and third degree burns to three fingers and his thumb.

"Cherry Bomb" Injures Boy
A firecracker exploded near a boy caused burns and abrasions to the right side, chest and arm of a five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Myron Merz, of 545 Fleming avenue, Mitchell, on Sunday. The boy was given emergency treatment at the hospital, and the sheriff's office was notified.

A firecracker thrown at the city's Speedway Saturday night burned the left hand of Miss Lucille Maurer, 20, Belle Meade street.

The threat of rain nearly forced postponement of the display at Wilson Park and caused an early start. The show began at 8:15 p.m. when it was still light and then was halted for a spell of rain.

It was resumed at about 8:45 p.m. Harold Brown, park district supervisor, said that a downpour of rain would have ruined the expensive pieces, and park employees were prepared to pack them up.

Meanwhile, 980 persons jammed the Wilson park swimming pool, trying to beat the heat. The water was at 82 degrees. The car was owned by Elwood Tunnell of the Merceda street area. Amount of damage was not listed.

At 4:37 a.m. firemen responded to a false alarm at 426 Weaver street, and at 12:15 a.m. Sunday were called to State and Market street where an auto owned by Taylor Turner, 121 Logan street, was burning. Meehan reported the motor caught fire and was extensively damaged.

At 11:45 p.m. Sunday, firemen answered a call to the residence of Carl A. Ranft, president of C. Ranft Bottling Co., and H. D. Karandjeff, chairman of the Granite City Trust & Savings and American National banks, in that the outside of the use did not catch fire.

Firemen used axes to cut away part of the tree to inject water inside it. It took an hour and half to get the fire out. Meehan said. Firemen were unable to find the large tree because of nearby power lines.

County May Hire
E. St. Louisan for Youth Corps Post

Employment of Walter Robinson of East St. Louis as director of the Neighborhood Youth Corps program in Madison county was announced by county economic opportunity commission executive board and is subject to approval by the full commission. It was announced Thursday at Edwardsville.

Objection to hiring an out-of-county person was raised by Mrs. J. Hornberger of Granite City, first vice-president. The full commission is to meet next week to approve the hire.

"We should hire a person from Madison county and one who needs a job. I know there are qualified persons available from the applications received, and among them is at least one woman from the Quad-City area," Mrs. Hornberger told the Press-Record.

2 Venice Firemen Burned Fighting Eagle Park Blaze

Two Venice firemen suffered minor burns late Friday night while fighting a fire of undetermined origin that destroyed a five-room, frame house in Eagle Park Acres and climaxed a series of five fire calls to the Venice fire department during the long holiday weekend.

Fire Chief William Meehan said that Michael Leuders, 21, of 308 Hill street was burned on both arms and Harold Koelker was burned on the left arm when hot tar from melting shingles dripped on them while they were fighting the blaze.

The house at 308 Hill street was owned and occupied by Hoover Parker. Meehan said no one was at home when the fire started and the blaze was well under way when Venice firemen received the call. Firemen were at the scene an hour and a half. No estimate of damages was given.

A few hours earlier, at 8:50 p.m. Friday, Venice firemen were called to 416 Merceda street to extinguish an auto fire. The car was owned by Elwood Tunnell of the Merceda street area. Amount of damage was not listed.

At 4:37 a.m. firemen responded to a false alarm at 426 Weaver street, and at 12:15 a.m. Sunday were called to State and Market street where an auto owned by Taylor Turner, 121 Logan street, was burning. Meehan reported the motor caught fire and was extensively damaged.

County Group Acts to Control Landfills; To Take 1st Step in Meeting with Mayors

First major step toward regulation of county landfills was taken Thursday night when members of the new Garbage, Refuse and Sanitation committee of the county board of supervisors met in East Alton with mayors from every city and village in the county.

Clyde Donham, Wood River supervisor and chairman of the committee, said principal purpose of the session will be to solicit support of the county's cities and villages for operation and landfill, his committee then would recommend to the Madison county board that it adopt a landfill control ordinance modeled after the Illinois law.

"We don't have any idea what we need in the way of incinerator or landfill capacity until we determine just how many cities would use the operation, Donham explained.

He said there are a number of methods of financing installation of an incinerator and landfill, but the capacity of such equipment needed to meet demands of all participating communities must

Two Boys Brown During Holiday Outings in Area

Marvin Nash, Venice,
Dies at Mount Olive;
Fatality in Mitchell

Drownings during holiday outings took the lives of a 17-year-old Venice youth at Lake Kahla, two troubled northwest of Mount Olive in Macoupin county, and a eight-year-old Caseyville boy at the Fun 'n Sun park, Mitchell.

The victims were Marvin Earl Nash, a senior at Venice high school, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Nash, 683 Fillmore street, and Mark Burns, a second grade pupil at Miller grade school, Caseyville, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burns, 7 Claydale place, Caseyville.

The two women were on a floating dock about ten feet square, 50 feet from shore at 5 p.m. Sunday. The boys Squared the Press-Record. Several of the group dove in to swim to the raft, including Marvin, who was not an experienced swimmer.

"He was the last one in the water and was about halfway from the bank to the raft when his mother noticed he was having trouble. He began calling for help."

"There were about 20 or 25 people on the bank, but at that place when you call for help everyone thinks you're not serious. They finally realized he was in trouble. He was about 10 feet from shore when he was found at 5:50 p.m. Sunday."

Born in St. Genevieve county, Mo., he had resided in Venice 16 years. A member of the Venice high school basketball team as a sophomore, he had completed his junior year at the school.

He was a member of the Venice Baptist Church. Survivors besides his parents were his sister Arlene, 13, and Norma June Nash, 18, both of Venice, and Mrs. Helen E. St. Louis, 40, of Caseyville, Mo. Charles Nash, 31, Venice, and Byron Nash, St. Louis, his maternal grandparents, Charles C. Carmichael, 61, Farmington, Mo., and his paternal grandfather, Kelly Nash, 61, Caseyville, Mo.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column. The Caseyville boy was missed by his older brother, Robert Burns, nine years old, some time Sunday. At the time there were many persons in the 26-acre sand-bath swimming area at Mitchell.

Sgt. Denis Nicholas of the staff of Madison County Sheriff Barney Fraundorfer was at the park and recalled hearing the missing boy's name being called on the public address system about 2:30 p.m. Later in the afternoon, he questioned Robert Burns and learned that he had last seen his brother diving into the water.

Nicholas and Charles Delos, a professional diver, organized a group of swimmers to make a search. The divers found the boy's body about the point where he had last been seen by his brother.

Unsuccessful efforts to revive him were made by Mitchell volunteer firefighters. The body was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital, he was admitted for treatment of burns to the bottom of his head and the palms of his hands, reddened areas on the elbows, aching all over his body and numbness in his arms.

First Shield Installed To Protect Bus Drivers

St. Louis police, transit union and Bi-State Transit officials Friday inspected the first installation of a protective shield placed behind the operator's seat in a Bi-State bus. This is one phase of a five-point program announced by Bi-State as a means of providing additional protection to bus operators following the slaying of a bus driver in a recent robbery.

The shield extends from the ceiling to the floor and curves around slightly on the operator's right-hand side. The top and bottom portions are of metal sheeting, with a panel of protective glass in the center to provide rear vision for the driver. The shields will be installed at a cost of $7500 in about 100 buses which operate in nighttime service.

Other phases of Bi-State's program to increase protection for operators and passengers include:

1. The equipping of about 100 buses used in nighttime service with two-way radios to provide immediate communication with the police department in emergency situations. This is estimated to cost about $150,000, and bids have been requested from radio equipment manufacturers.

2. City police officers in plain clothes, on or off duty, are now being permitted to ride on the buses on the showing of their official badge.

3. The equipping of additional buses with four-way flashing light systems that can be used as a signal for police help in cases of emergency.

4. To supplement, if necessary, the police presence now being provided by members of the police decoy squad, with specially licensed armed guards in plain clothes riding the buses. This program is now under consideration by police and Bi-State officials.

Salaries to be Major Council Topic Tonight

Salaries for Granite City's 135 city employees are expected to be the major topic of tonight's 8 o'clock council session.

The meeting is being held this evening because of the holiday, and the first item of business will be to select a presiding officer, since Mayor Partney is at San Francisco attending a national Shriners' convention.

Who will preside will not be known until Clerk Pendleton calls for nominations and the vote. The council has on occasion selected a freshman alderman to preside, but the custom has been for a senior alderman to be temporary mayor.

The council's Personnel committee headed by Alderman Thompson, has made no advance disclosure of pay adjustments for city employees. At last week's session, Mayor Partney told the aldermen it was his opinion the employees were deserving of pay increases.

Missing Items

The salary figures and an operational budget for the new sewage treatment plant are all that remain to complete the 1966-67 city budget which now totals $2,022,875. The budget total is $381,340 over last year's actual expenditures, with $287,685 budgeted for special improvement projects, compared to $46,281 expended last year.

Mayor Partney has warned the council he will use his veto power to achieve a balanced budget so as not to wipe out the city's reserve funds in a year when tax income is expected to be cut by about $200,000.

He said flatly the inclusion of $287,685 for sidewalk, street and curb work was ridiculous when the city's financial position was in jeopardy, and many of the aldermen who called for projects in their wards agreed with him.

May Start Cutting

Work on cutting the budget

may be started tonight after the Personnel committee makes its recommendation on salaries.

At present, a Granite City police patrolman and a fireman receive $70 a month and a street department worker is paid $60 a month.

In Madison, where no increases were granted last year, a patrolman receives $55 and a street worker $45. Venice police patrolmen receive $50 a month and a street worker is paid $40 for a 40-hour week. It has been several years since Venice city workers have received pay increases.

In Alton, police patrolmen receive $60 a month and a fireman is paid on the same scale. A street worker receives $10 for a 40-hour week. Belleville patrolmen and firemen receive $40 to $53 a month, depending on length of service, while street workers are paid $44 a month, plus a uniform.

Inter-City Game July 10

Crabtree, Opich to Lead All-Star Teams

Merced Manager Don Crabtree and Hearts-Library Home boss man Ed Opich were named as opposing mentors in the Southwestern Illinois Inter-City League's July 10 All-Star Game at a league meeting here Friday night.

Jones Park in East St. Louis is the site for the game. It will get underway at 2:30 p.m. In case of postponement, the site will switch to Collinsville's Fletcher Field for an 8 p.m. game time.

Marking the 35th anniversary of the league, the game is a memorial benefit to raise funds for a monument to be erected in Maryville in honor of league founder Vernon Lucas.

League officials have made an appeal to all current and former members of the league for a contribution of $1 toward the Lucas memorial fund. Donations can be mailed to fund chairman Harold Oberkell, Box 231, Maryville.

One coach and 24 players for each team were selected. Harper

Post 113 Blasts Alton But Drops One to Post 199

Edwardsville is the only team to have beaten Legion Post 113 twice after its 32 triumph Saturday at Wilson Park. The local crew committed six errors.

A hit batsman, sacrifice and post 113's first error led to the initial Edwardsville run. Charlie Collins stretched-single and Ripka's safety tied the score in the first and a perfect squeeze play scoring Larry Johnson put Post 113 ahead in the second.

In the fifth, Edwardsville got its first hit with two out. A blop single went for a triple, and the tying run scored on another single.

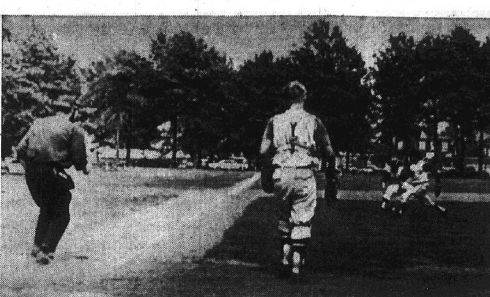

With one out in the sixth, a runner reached base on another error. A wild pitch advanced him and he scored on a single.

In the Thursday night game Alton was a little more effective than on June 7, when Tom Stitch fired a no-hitter at the team. In fact, Alton knocked out Stitch and outlived Post 113 by 12-9. But Turpenoff's powerhouse crew still clobbered the Altonians 12-7.

The contest was called after six innings because of darkness. As it turned out, Post 113 would have only needed its fourth inning. It scored 10 times in the fourth after one was out.

Jim Hackney, Bill Grable and Greg Patton had triples, Charlie Collins a double, Carl Benson, Hackney and Grable singles, Larry Johnson, Larry Ripka, and Benson a walk each and Jim Rains was hit by a pitch—all this in the wild fourth inning.

If Post 113 is to bounce back it will have to be against the SMOOTH PLAY LIKE THIS was the exception in Saturday's Post 113 loss to Edwardsville in which Granite City committed six errors. Here, catcher Fred Hoffman and the umpire watch closely, pitcher Mike Shamroo hurries to cover third while Greg Patton prepares to field a grounder.

Club Delmar Softball Team Ends Slump

All four Eastern Division clubs were victorious as they made their first invasion of Western Division territory Thursday night in Wilson Park Open League A action.

A 16-hit barrage with homers by Bill Seago, Mike Sikora and Don Osbia lifted Club Delmar out of a drought of six straight losses as it drubbed Local 30 by a 12-3 score. The losers are now 2-5.

Mexican Honorary brought its league mark up to 3-3 in a 17-7 romp over Rocky Realty. Sonny Antoff, Jess Ybarra and Andy Basch each hit two homers while Don Goldsmith hit a single home run for the winners. Ira Martin and Larry Cooper homered for Rocky, now 4-3.

Bob Jones' homer topped Liberty Home's 14-hit attack as the squad notched its fifth victory against one defeat in turning back Fallstaff 7-3. Bob Garlin's homer highlighted the Fallstaff showing. Fallstaff is 2-5 now.

League pacer Polish Hall, now 6-1, continued its dominance in trimming Sammy's Tavern 11-4. John Konkovich and Frank Scarsdale homered for Polish Hall. Joe Hauptman and Joe

Venice Trounces Mets, Belleville Takes Two

The senior Khoury League placed emphasis on offense Sunday.

The Venice Mets gave no quarter to their rivals, the Madison Dies, in a 2-7 trouncing. Venice's Billy O'Dell went the route to victory, allowing only six hits and collecting three himself.

The afternoon slugfest included 16 hits for the Mets, who scored eight runs in the second inning four in the third and six in the seventh. Ron Thurman, Greg Puente and Dave Dacus each had three hits for Venice. Dacus and Ken Craig of the Dies homered.

In a long affair at Belleville the host Moose team took two contests from the East St. Louis Bluejays by scores of 3-1 (a three-hit, 20-strikeout performance by the Moose hurler) and 11-3.

Granite City Steel Credit Union had a bye on this week's schedule.

Tavern League to Meet

The Tri-City Tavern League is holding a 7 p.m. meeting today at Rosey's, 12th and Greenwood street, Madison.

Hiles were each 3-for-4 in the losing cause, that saw Sammy's slip to a 4-3 mark.

Mercer 12-0 at All-Star Break

Mercers Win 3, Hearts 1; As Mitchell Drops 2

Mercer won two from Polish-American at Jones Park yesterday, 5-2 and 13-4. With its 1-6 win over Mitchell A.C. Sunday, Mercer awaits next Sunday's all-star game with a 12-0 record.

Mitchell lost again yesterday, 14-7 to a visiting Maryville team. Hearts-Library Home, after dropping a 1-0 game to Harper Sunday, edged East Alton 10-9 at Wilson Park yesterday.

Break Tie
Greg Patton's first-inning homer and Bob Jones' double behind Fred Hoffman's single in the fourth put Mercer ahead in the opener at East St. Louis yesterday.

But an error and single set things up for Mike Hoey's tying homer in the Polish-American seventh.

With Jones singling, Hoffman doubling and Crabtree singling, Mercer went ahead in the eighth. In the ninth, Rich Branding's single drove in Patton, who had doubled.

In the bottom half of the twelfth, with Mercer the "home team" in a rainout, make-up, Polish-American never got off the ground. Mercer had seven runs at the end of the first.

Big guns for Crabtree were Terry French, four-for-four with a homer, Pat Harris, with two bases-loaded doubles, and Bob Soehnlin, with three hits.

Maryville Keeps Scoring
In the game at Mitchell yesterday, the hosts spotted Maryville three in the first but bounced back with four on their own with Dave Sparks' single, Chuck Mizurski's double and triples by Larry Williams and John Corrie.

Maryville tied it in the third and scored four more in the fourth. Steve Schardan's two-run homer tied it 8-6, but the visitors scored four in the sixth. Mitchell's eighth-inning rally produced only one run and Maryville scored two in the ninth to go out of reach.

Hearts Start Fast
Frank Hiding tripled and stole home as the Hearts started on Sunday.

Pontoon Church Edges EUB 11-10 In Church Loop

Pontoon Church of Christ edged EUB 11-10 in Quad-Cities Church League play Thursday night. Harry Ellsworth hit two homers in a 4-for-4 effort. Bob Deckard was also 4-for-4 and Bob Leck homered for the winners.

Dick Dowdy and Tony George were each 3-for-4 and Gary Portell homered for EUB.

In the other scheduled contest, Third Baptist won a 7-0 forfeit game when First Church of God had a shortage of players.

League standings at this point are: Black Division—Nameki 2-3, First Church of God 0-4.

East Alton in three-run fashion at Wilson Park yesterday. Jim Rains walked and swiped home, after Ray Logan singled. Bill Cox then drove in Vic Buehler.

After East Alton added a single run in the third, the Hearts piled on three more with Adrian Rains and Cox spacing singles between walks. East Alton made it 6-2 in the fourth and added two in the sixth but the Hearts scored three. This time it was Roy Dush's homer with two on. But the stubborn visitors added three in their seventh with a triple and home run.

East Alton tied the score with two in the ninth. But Vic Buehler led off the Hearts' ninth by singling. Bill Cox and Ron Reiss grounded out. Bill Raine singled and Steve Leik was safe on an error. Hideg then drove Buehler in with the winning run.

It was a weekend of feast or famine for the Hearts. Ed Opich's single and double were all the hits as the squad lost to Harper 1-0 Sunday at Jones Park. Only two Hearts got as far as third.

In another 1-0 game, Mitchell again played it close as it lost to Mercer at Wilson Park Sunday. Doug Winfield, who later settled down, began with a walk to Soehnlin, and Harris reached base on an error.

Hoffman walked and Jones singled Soehnlin home. After Branding fanned and "Jo Jo" Johannmeyer hit into a fielder's choice, Harris tried to score on Crabtree's grounder.

Mitchell claimed Harris missed the bag. After an argument, during which he was tagged out, Harris was ejected. From then on Winfield and Bruce Thompson were locked in a pitching duel.

In other July Fourth activity around the league, Troy, which had lost to East Alton Sunday 7-6, edged yesterday to Collinsville 5-0. Pocahontas, after knocking off Maryville 12-9 Sunday, took a 3-4 rain-halted five-inning affair from Harper yesterday.

COUNTY DAIRY COW LEADS

A Madison county dairy cow led all cows in the state of Illinois in butterfat production in the year of testing just closed.

For the first time in the 43-year history of the Illinois 600-Pound Butterfat Club, the top seven cows exceeded 1000 pounds of butterfat. And all of the top 10 produced more than 950 pounds, according to the University of Illinois extension dairy scientist J. G. Cash.

The highest producing cow was a registered Holstein owned by Jim Beane of Godfrey, Madison county. She produced 1102 pounds of butterfat. This cow was Maplewood Lane Dora Mega, famous for her state record of 30,174 lbs. of milk in Algonquin, last year. Clarence 305-day lactation period last year.

Other producers with cows in the top 10 were Mar-Ral Farm, Algonquin; Clarence Becker, Alhambra, Madison county; Lautenschlaeger Bros., Mascoutah; Rosewood Farm, Roselle; Louis Pochis, Belvidere; Borebright and Hutmacher, Freeport; Truman and Allene Pocklington, Shipman and Laverne Peterson, Sterling.

Cash says 4480 cows owned by 899 different DHIA members qualified for the club. One hundred five members owned 10 or more cows that qualified.

Mayfair Management Co. of Woodstock topped all herds, with 52 cows that qualified with 600 or more pounds of butterfat during a 305-day lactation.

Other owners with 25 or more cows that qualified were Windy Knoll Farm, Crystal Lake, 49; Rolling Acres Farm, Elgin, 44; Elmer Klenke, New Douglas, Madison county, 38; Rosewood Farm, Roselle, 33; Clarence Becker, Alhambra, Madison county, 26; Edwin Walberg, Garfield, 25; Calvin Brodbeck, Rosamond, 26; Weldon and Leif Long, Sterling, 26; and Ralph Nichols and Son, Hebron, 26.

The Illinois 600-Pound Butterfat Club was organized 43 years ago to focus attention on the many high-producing cows and herds in the state. Because of improved production, the program was changed to the Illinois 600-Pound Butterfat Club in 1959.

Cash says that feeding adequate grain to dairy cows to prevent summer sag in milk production is good business this year. He explains that the milk feed ratio, or the number of pounds of concentrate equal in value to a pound of milk, is now favorable for heavier grain feeding.

He gives the following feeding recommendations based on milk productions: Ayrshires, Brown Swiss, Holsteins and Milking Shorthorns cows producing 30 or more pounds of milk daily should receive 1 pound of grain for every 2 1/2 pounds of milk produced.

Cows producing 30 to 49 pounds of milk should receive 1 pound of grain for every 3 pounds of milk produced. One pound of grain for every 4 pounds of milk produced is adequate.

quate for cows giving less than 30 pounds of milk daily.

Guernseys and Jerseys should receive about 20% more grain in each production category to meet feed requirements associated with their production of a higher percentage of butterfat and non-fat milk solids.

BEEBLE PROBLEM

Striped cucumber beetles are numerous on squash, cucumber, melon and other vine crops in home gardens. These black and yellow striped beetles feed upon the new seedlings as they emerge from the soil. They commonly kill the small seedlings and seriously retard or kill older plants. Carbaryl (Sevin) used as a dust or spray will control these beetles. Apply late in the day. Repeated applications may be necessary.

Aphids are present on green beans, tomatoes and other vegetables. These small, green, usually wingless insects suck sap from the underside of the leaves, causing them to curl downward. Aphids usually give off a sticky substance called honeydew. This substance plus cast skins can be found sticking to the leaves. Malathion is an effective spray to controlling aphids in the home garden.

Black flea beetles are present on potatoes, egg plants and tomatoes. Tiny brown pinpoint spots on the leaves are indications of feeding. These beetles jump at the slightest disturbance and may be difficult to find on the plants. Regular application of Carbaryl (Sevin) sprays or dusts may be needed to obtain control. Apply late in the day.

Dystershell scale, a common pest of lilac bushes, can be controlled at this time of year with malathion. The scale insects are not encased in their shells. Also pine needle scale, a pest of many pine tree and shrub species, can be controlled at this time of year with malathion. Pine needle scale appears as white specks on the needles, and some needles turn brown and drop off.

WHEAT HARVEST

Wheat harvest started last week and most of it will be finished at this time of year with malathion. The scale insects are not encased in their shells. Also pine needle scale, a pest of many pine tree and shrub species, can be controlled at this time of year with malathion. Pine needle scale appears as white specks on the needles, and some needles turn brown and drop off.

A few heavy yields of some 50 bushels have been reported but not enough has been harvested to live much idea what the average will be. Most of the grain so far has been of good quality.

Cartridges for the control of groundhogs can no longer be obtained at the farm adviser's office. The State Department of Conservation does not permit their use after June 30, as other animals may be using the dens from now on and of course would be gassed along with the groundhogs. More than 325 Madison county farmers and landowners have used the cartridges this year.

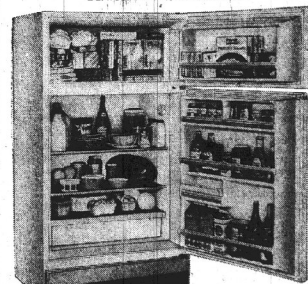

Many farmers are topdressing alfalfa fields after cutting with phosphate and potash to maintain soil fertility and assure continued good crops. Now farmers are now getting seven and eight tons per acre a year with the improved varieties and better management.

Madison May Adopt Earlier Tavern Closing, Mayor Says

Passage of an ordinance by the Madison city council, providing earlier closing hours for taverns, has become a possibility with years ago when a plan to eliminate night clubs and late closing hours was presented to East St. Louis in a referendum, and was defeated.

"We took that as an indication of what the people wanted and dropped any move to change tavern and club hours in Madison," Maerz said. "The mayor said Madison night clubs are in Centerville and are an 'influx of drunks' from East St. Louis if closing hours there are enforced strictly and taverns are forced to close at 1 a.m."

He added that whatever action is taken in Madison, special weekend hours will be voided because later hours on Saturday and Sunday would "discriminate" against shift workers and others who are required to work weekends.

"Liquor," said the mayor, "appears to have become a necessity of life rather than a luxury." Maerz said some council members have dissented from his ideas about earlier tavern closing.

5 Zone Changes Denied by City Plan Commission

Five petitions for zoning change were denied Thursday afternoon by the City Plan Commission during hearings held in the city hall in Granite City.

Denied as spot zoning was a request by Morris Investment Co. for rezoning a tract on the southwest corner of Pontoon road and Stearns avenue for an Ace Hardware store.

The commissioners noted the area is now zoned R-2 and R-3 for single-family dwellings and that to change it to C-1 for commercial could result in three or four other requests for commercial classifications at similar locations.

Chairman William Hoelscher said the area primarily is residential. The request was supported by a petition with 45 signatures, and there was an objecting petition with 40 signatures.

Duplex Area Rejected
Also denied as spot zoning was a request from Leo and Sara Wolf for an R-4 classification for six lots at 310-312 Yale drive for construction of duplex dwellings. The lots now are R-2 for single-family dwellings.

Commissioners said there now are duplex dwellings forming a buffer zone in the Lucerne Park Estates subdivision and 19 still are available for duplex construction. The lots along Yale drive are in the single-family zone and it was stated that to rezone them might bring about a further expansion of the R-4 area in the R-2 section of the subdivision.

A change from R-3 single-family zoning to R-5 multiple family for an apartment house at 2200 Delmar avenue also was denied, even though the apartment has been started and there are apartments nearby.

The commissioners said the area is predominantly a single-family dwelling neighborhood and that with the main residence a duplex, which is a non-conforming use, the addition of an apartment would result in a multiple-family use. The change was requested by Walter and Rose Whitaker.

A C-1 commercial designation for 1027 Twenty-seventh street, Parkview Confectionery, where Howard S. Cline planned to reze the present structure and build another store, was rejected. The board said it did not want to give a full commercial classification to the tract which is a residential area. One objector appeared before the board.

Also turned down was the petition of Carolyn Steiner for a C-1 designation for a residence at 2000 Pontoon road for use as a doctor's office. It presently is zoned R-1.

Medicare Offers Home Nursing Services

(This is the fifth in a series of articles by Ralph Brasher, Social Security district manager in East St. Louis, on how Medicare works.)

Some communities have home health agencies that provide visiting nurse services and other home care or therapy to persons confined at home. Your doctor or the people at our social security office can tell you if your community provides such home health services. Home health services are covered only if your doctor has determined that you are in need of this type of care.

The hospital insurance will pay for up to 100 home health visits by nurses or other health workers from qualified home health agencies during the 365 days following your release from a hospital (after a stay of at least three days) or from an extended care facility.

Home health services are covered by Medicare if your doctor makes arrangements for this care within 14 days after your discharge from the hospital or extended care facility.

The care or services you get must be a continuation of the care you got while you were in the hospital. In other words, covered home health visits are for the same illness you had while you were hospitalized.

Home health services covered include: Part-time nursing care; physical, occupational, or speech therapy.

Services of home health aides (in connection with your treatment).

Medical social services. Medical supplies, except drugs. Use of medical appliances. Any of the rehabilitation services outside your home which requires equipment that cannot be brought to your home.

Home services not covered are: Physicians' services (your medical insurance will help to pay your doctor bills). Prescription drugs.

Full time nursing care. Personal comfort items (telephone, "companion" service).

Services furnished by a home health agency operated primarily for the treatment of mental illness.

General housekeeping services. Meals delivered to your home. As an example: Mrs. A. fell down the stairs in her home and was hospitalized for 23 days. At the end of that time, she was now able to be up and around home, but her doctor felt she was not yet ready to go home. So he had Mrs. A. transferred to the convalescent section of the hospital. Mrs. A. was there for 20 days and was discharged, because she was well enough to be home, and the "home" atmosphere would be good for her.

After the first $40 for inpatient hospital care, Mrs. A. was only responsible for the doctor bill (and medical insurance helped pay that). She paid nothing for the 20 days in the convalescent section of the hospital, and nothing for the 93 home visits.

However, the doctor felt she should have certain services. He established a plan with a participating home health agency which could provide the services of a qualified part-time nurse, a qualified physical therapist, and a qualified medical social worker.

Each of these people aided Mrs. A. under the direction of her own doctor, and each of them made 31 visits to her home over the next nine months—that made a total of 93 home health visits.

Mrs. A's cost for the above services:

A reception followed at Fischer's restaurant in Belleville.

For her wedding the bride chose a gown of silk organza over tulle with a semi-full skirt. The scooped neckline was scalloped and the short sleeves were of Alencon lace.

Williams Jr., 128 Riviera drive, and Ronald Keith Brink, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas R. Brink, 18 Miami Court.

An open pillow of reembroidered Alencon lace trimmed with seed pearls and crystals held the bride's tiered veil of illusion.

She wore a single strand of pearls, the bridegroom's gift, and carried a modified crescent bouquet centered with a cascade of gardenias, stephanotis and variegated ivy.

Miss Pam Boitch, maid of honor, and bridesmaids, Miss Barbara Williams, a sister of the bride, Miss Pat Sloan, and Miss Jo Anne Faeck, bridesmaids, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas R. Brink, 18 Miami Court.

The bride wore a white cotton lace suit over deep beige chignon and a beige pillbox hat; the bridegroom's mother wore a mint green lace and crepe dress and a green veiled bowler hat. Both carried beaded bags to which were pinned cymbidium orchid corsages, tulle for the bride's mother and green for the groom's.

MRS. JAMES R. ALSOP, a bride of Saturday at St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church. Before the wedding she was Patricia Ann Cerutti, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Berto Cerutti, 3028 Marshall avenue.

Miss Carol Sue Clark and Arthur LeRoy Hagler Wed

At three o'clock Sunday afternoon at Trinity Methodist Church, Miss Carol Sue Clark, a daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Clair Clark, 2531 East 25th street, became the bride of Arthur LeRoy Hagler, son of Mrs. Elizabeth Rudolph of Alton, and Leroy Hagler of Durant, Mississippi.

The double-ring service was conducted by the bride's father, pastor of the church.

Miss Clark was given in marriage by her uncle, C. Wayne Austin of Joliet, Ill. She wore a dress of white tulle with a shawl gown of white and silver satin brocade, embroidered with silver leaves and white rose buds. Her veil of silk illusion was held by a petal white rose and she carried a nosegay of white roses.

Miss Mariou Clark, a sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and Paul Young of Alton, served as best man. Ushers were Ronald Hempel, Godfrey, and Daniel Clark, the bride's brother. The maid of honor was attired in a dress of blue embroidered chiffon over blue and held a bouquet of white carnations centered with blue and bound with white ribbon.

Miss Judy Cook of East St. Louis sang "Make of Our Hearts" and "Whither Thou Goest." She was accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Joyce Harris.

The bride's mother wore an A-line dress of whipped cream fabric, white with tiny pink flowers, and the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. Rudolph, wore a pink and white dress.

The bride was graduated from the Granite City high school and received her education major at Southern Illinois University-Southern campus.

Mr. Hagler attended Southern Illinois University and is presently employed by the Olin Mathieson D. C. Casting Plant in Alton.

After a honeymoon trip, the couple will reside in Wood River.

Surprise Party On Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Hall were guests of honor Saturday evening at a surprise celebration arranged by Mr. Hall's sister, Mrs. Hazel Lambert, in honor of their wedding anniversary.

The affair, attended by more than fifty relatives and friends of the couple from this area, was held in the newly decorated Eagles Hall on Madison avenue.

A buffet dinner was served at 8 o'clock, and a large tiered anniversary cake decorated in silver held the place of honor on the table. Entertainment was provided by the Eagles Auxiliary Kitchen Band.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall have a son, Charles, in military service in Korea, another son, Ronald, who will leave July 26 for the Navy, and a daughter, Miss Kathleen Hall, at home.

Many gifts, cards and congratulatory messages were received by the couple.

Men have failed for every reason under the sun except for lack of advice.

The people who really love it to often discover that they have a lot to live down.

How to Broaden Base Of Campaign Financing?

By Dr. Herbert E. Alexander, Citizens' Research Foundation Director, and Miss Laura L. Denny, formerly with the Institute of Governmental Studies.

Political parties are not often mentioned in state constitutions. In many states, particularly the older ones, parties came to compete in the political arena without full legal or constitutional status.

Campaign abuses have brought legislative remedy, but measures have been either negative or restrictive. Little thought was given to the role of the party in the political process, and little long-range planning went into proposed remedies.

As problems occurred, efforts were made to legislate them away, but in isolated or piecemeal fashion. Thus no comprehensive attack on problems brought about by the role and influence of money in politics took form.

The electoral process generally was not reshaped to cope with the growth of political parties, nor the expansion of the electorate, nor the high cost of campaigning, nor the development of new campaign techniques.

Strict Rules Not Enforced

The restrictive character of most legislation regulating political finance, combined with the lack of enforcement, has done little to raise the standards of American political life, and, in fact, may have contributed to cynicism toward American politics.

The citizens' image of political money as something to be restricted, rather than as a means of political participation to be encouraged, tends to inhibit favorable response to political fund appeals.

As for party managers, there is a resulting feeling that efforts to broaden the base require too much time and expense and will not find a favorable response among the people.

Hence, parties and candidates often continue to rely upon old habits of fund-raising and campaign practices, and are unwilling to try new methods. Nor do party leaders often press elected governors and legislatures for remedial legislation.

Little State Action

Governors and state legislatures are occupied with other matters, many perhaps more pressing. It is easy to disregard such housekeeping issues as the regulation of political finance, or to give proposals low-priority status.

State legislatures are slow to respond to recommendations for change based on studies of state research or legislative bureau or even commissions appointed by governors.

Response to scandal may be more prompt, but the public is notorious for its short memory and the outrage following a scandal is quickly forgotten.

Public concern about the practices and regulation of political finance is not often articulated. One can point to the Report of the President's Commission on Campaign Costs . . . or to other models, but attempts to adapt and initiate comprehensive model systems cannot readily be found.

Disclosure, Publicity Laws

Florida has had some success with its disclosure and publicity law. Massachusetts is seeking improvement of its public reporting provisions.

Oregon finds the publishing of publicity pamphlets helpful. North Dakota has ventured some innovations in payments to convention delegates. Minnesota has pioneered the tax deduction for political contributions and for candidate expenses.

But no state has attempted a major overhaul of election law including all facets of disclosure and publicity, limitations, practices, positive assistance to parties and candidates.

The enactment of the Florida "Who Gave It-Who Got It" law in 1951 could have been considered the beginning of a major reform movement if much of consequence had followed in other states. Perhaps because change has been negligible, the Florida law has received most attention.

Revisions Usually Minor

Minor revision of state election law is common; major change is not. Between 1951 and 1957, fully three-fourths of the states

Such wide differences in authorized and actual spending have been winked at by candidates up to and including presidents for years; arrests and penalties have been extremely rare.

Whether a full solution can be found immediately is doubtful, but the attempt deserves to be placed high on the priority list of every citizen.

With most big contributions going to the expected national winner in 1968, Republicans have necessarily resorted to public appeals for gifts, and broke all records for the number of small donations.

If such widespread support for candidates of both parties at all levels can be fostered, the gain for each Quad-City and each American will be obvious. With a broader base of financial backing, each public official can be less beholden to special interests and can devote himself fully to doing the best possible job for all constituents.

Thorough Investigation Warranted

A severe beating suffered by a carpenter in Wood River was inflicted by known Madison county hoodlums, including Quad-Cityans, police allege.

Hospitalized for surgery and for treatment of a fractured eye, the victim, who was identified as the man who hit with a bottle and concrete block and was "stomped on" by six men immediately after a union election in which he was an unsuccessful candidate for president of his local.

Each circumstance of the assault have not been disclosed pending a preliminary hearing July 13, but the fact that a Carpenter District Council business agent was present raises questions that merit thorough investigation by the council.

Democracy cannot have much meaning for an American unless it prevails in his labor organization as well as his nation. Hoodlums have no bonafide role in union deliberations and ought to be kept out.

$366,000 United Fund Goal Reflects Expanded Programs

Setting of the 1966-67 United Fund goal at $366,000, up 5% from the previous year's quota, reflects expanded health and character-building activities of the many local UF agencies.

As in past years, it will be essential in the fall campaign for all Quad-Cityans to do their fair share toward raising the needed funds. Everybody, regardless, directly or indirectly, everyone should give.

Quad-Cities Increasingly Oriented to Water Sports

Swimming pools in the Quad-City area at one time could be counted on the fingers of one hand, consisting primarily of the indoor pool at the YMCA and the big sand-bottom pool at Wilson Park.

The picture has changed, and not just because of installation of the present park pool in 1939. Residential pools have been constructed in recent years, along with Olympic-size pools at private clubs and resorts.

This year the Paddlers swimming club has added a second major pool, scheduled for dedication July 10, and the Arlington club has just completed a new heated pool.

Considering these developments and the already extensive interest in such water sports as diving with underwater breathing apparatus, boating and fishing, it is not surprising that Quad-City is the most aquatic-minded communities in the nation.

TEENAGERS VOLUNTEERED AS DAY CAMP COUNSELORS

At a time when one reads and hears so much about juvenile delinquency, it is very gratifying to me to see 21 teenage volunteer counselors give two weeks of their time to help children in need.

Many of the credit goes to Barbara Martin, Alia Bollinger, Liz McDonald, Nancy Sheriff, Marilyn Clanton, Mary Beresky, Cindy Lesko, Sid Willard, Jim Helrich, Charles Riverburgh, Nat Bynum, Robin Teague, Mike Mayes, Craig Wheeler, Tom Howerkamp, Barbara Decker, Debbie Osborne, Bruce Evans, Phyllis Boda, Sharon Evans, Sue Ann Lyle, who served as counselors.

My thanks to all of them—they are a grand group of young people.

SHERIFF'S SUPPORT OF COMMUNIST NAMED
To the Editor:

I have read a letter in the Forum of the June 27 issue of the Press-Record by a candidate. He made some statements which need clearing up.

He said it is like any citizen and does have a right to take part in and vote in any election. He is on duty 24 hours a day and seven days a week, and has not taken a vacation in three years.

His office in the county court house was closed on election day, but he was in constant touch with his staff, as his car is equipped with a radio. He did not use this car to carry voters to the polls.

There was mention of two members of the sheriff's office Wednesday.

Science and the Quad-Cities

May Control 'Tallness' Chemical

(American Chemical Society)

Height is a variable thing. Basketball players love it, but jockeys can get along without it.

Both over their height or lack of it to minute amounts of a chemical produced by a pea-sized organ seated at the base of the brain. The organ is the pituitary gland and the chemical is called human growth hormone, or HGH.

HGH is a special type of protein, the most common body material. Until recently, that was almost all that chemists knew of its structure.

But last month, in a report to The Journal of the American Chemical Society, a team of chemists from the University of California at Berkeley reported the complete atom-by-atom structure of HGH. This marked the end of ten years of work for the team led by Dr. C. H. Li, head of the university's hormone research laboratory.

Exciting Achievement

The unraveling of the structure of HGH excited doctors as well as chemists, because of HGH's application in the treatment of certain types of dwarfism in children.

And studies with animal growth hormones suggest that growth hormones also influence resistance to infection, enhance the effect of other hormones, and prevent wastage of muscle tissue. Further evidence from animal studies indicates that growth hormones may be closely involved in processes that lead to the development of cancer.

Dr. Li's achievement means that scientists can now try to make an artificial HGH in the laboratory from off-the-shelf chemicals. This may be critical, since the supply of natural HGH for treatment is sharply drained. It now takes 1000 glands to produce 3/100 of an ounce of the hormone.

A related bit of information tantalizing the chemists is that natural HGH's growth-promoting activity could possibly be accomplished with a simpler material.

Relationship to Effects

Another benefit of Dr. Li's work is that scientists can now look for the answers to the question of how the structure of HGH is related to its biological effects. They would like to know, for example, what part of the HGH molecule does the job, and if it can be modified to do a better job or an entirely different one that might have new medical applications. Scientists may be able to learn how to modify different animal growth hormones so that they can be applied to look like Dr. Li and his colleagues report that it is a single human one.

What the HGH molecule chain of 188 amino acid-building blocks, strung together like the beads of a necklace. A curious feature, whose importance no one is yet sure of, is that in about half the molecules are hooked together so that it forms two loops.

One of Many Breakthroughs

The structure of HGH is another triumph for Dr. Li, whose laboratory has contributed much to the knowledge about the chemistry of the many hormones produced by the pituitary gland.

From his laboratory came the first isolation and structure identification of ACTH, well known for its use in arthritis treatments. It was the first of a series of related and reported the chemical structure of four other hormones made by the pituitary gland.

News From The Files Of The GRANITE CITY PRESS-RECORD

July 3, 1916

Although the citizens of Granite City are not taking in patriotism, there will be no public celebration here tomorrow. Quite a number of local citizens will attend Independence Day celebrations in nearby cities and resorts.

Young America, as usual, will observe the day as only youth can—at the noise level of all the ways possible, regardless of burnt fingers or wounds from tourist traps.

At Normandy Grove, on July 4 there will gather representative their descendants in a benefit picnic for the British Relief Association. The proceeds will be expended in war relief.

The celebration this year supplant the annual gathering of the Scottish clans. The combined gathering may be made an annual affair hereafter.

Members of the David's Society and others of Granite City will attend and take part in the annual athletic games, athletic contests and a supper will constitute the more important features of the program that has been arranged.

25 YEARS AGO

July 2, 1941

Attorney and Mrs. Harry Faulkner and their daughters, Mrs. Margaret Faulkner and Dorothy Lee, left for Temple City, Calif., where they are to be guests of the former's sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Lindsey, and mother, Mrs. Maria Faulkner, former Granite Cityans. They will be away about three weeks.

Mrs. and Mr. R. H. Cowan and daughter, Marian Alice, left for a motor trip through the south. They will stop at Colorado Springs and Denver, Colo.

The Demolay Mothers club met at the Masonic Temple on Wednesday, Mrs. Ellen King, in charge.

A brief business session was held and there were games and contests. Mrs. Anna Grasse received the prize in both contests, and another prize went to Mrs. Blanche Shaw.

Nineteen members of the club were present, and refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. Helen Hausfuss, Mrs. Victoria Kohl, Mrs. Nora Huggins, Mrs. Mabel Schwartz, Mrs. King and Mrs. Mildred Robertson, to the members and 31 Demolays.

A tea for the Fidelis class of the Third Baptist Church was given at the home of Mrs. H. R. Johnson and Mesdames Margaret Tarloff, Juanita Fuchs, Sharon Loftus, Mary Earle, Mary Nelson, Leta Tarloff, Ruth Malotki and Betty Skrabell.

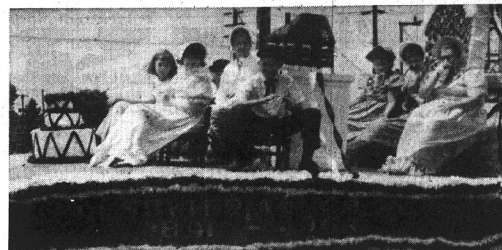

Keith Parker, manager of the pool, will be master of ceremonies. The dedication, which begins at 1:30 p.m., was arranged by

Madison Police Arrest Man with 17 Bogus Bills

Further investigation into the arrest in Madison Friday morning of a man possessing 17 counterfeit $10 bills was referred to the U. S. district attorney's office in Springfield today by the U. S. Treasury Department, St. Louis.

The man was arrested at 1:30 a.m. Friday outside Young's Lounge, 800 Jackson street, Madison, after he attempted to pass a bogus $10 bill to Betty Walker, bartender at the tavern. A few minutes later, Madison police arrested a second man who was said to be a companion of the first suspect while they were both inside the tavern.

Madison police reported they received a call for an officer to see the bartender at the lounge and assigned Patrolman B. J. Bland. Bland said when he arrived he was met by Miss Walker who pointed out the man who had tendered a bogus $10 bill in payment for drinks. As Bland walked up to the bar, the man picked up the bill, the man drank in change and walked out. Bland followed.

Outside, Bland reported, he found the man rummaging in the glove compartment of an auto. As Bland approached, the man walked around the front of the car and dropped something from his pocket, apparently in an attempt to throw the officer off. Bland meanwhile had sent for Patrolman Norris Horton, who was at Garrett's tavern, the street, arrested the man and retrieved the article he had dropped, a roll of 17 $10 bills, all of which were counterfeit.

Second Man Arrested

The man's companion walked out of the tavern a few minutes later and also was arrested. Police said he had no bogus bills on him.

A search of the men's car revealed a .32 caliber automatic hidden under the front seat. The car, Madison officers said, was registered in the name of the father of the second man who was arrested.

Police filed a charge of illegal transportation of a firearm against Robert Perryman, 28, of St. Louis, identified as the second suspect who was arrested he left the tavern.

Officers then notified the U. S. Treasury Department in St. Louis. An agent was sent to Madison police headquarters. Both Perryman and the man who was arrested with the counterfeit bills were questioned at length. The man who possessed the bills was taken to St. Louis for further questioning and subsequently was released.

Perryman posted $100 cash bail on the weapon charge and was released late Friday afternoon.

Treasury agents at St. Louis said today that further investigation of the case was being made and filing of charges, or further action in the case, will be up to the U. S. district attorney's office at Springfield, Ill.

Madison police said the bogus bills included two of a counterfeit series numbered as Serial H 316883145B, and 15 bills numbered as Serial 608038834 B.

Ralph Smith and to Chouteau Township Supervisor Joseph Troeckler. Troeckler has been an adamant foe of the Chouteau landfill operation and has made several attempts to shut down the operation.

The letter alleged, among other things, that the site was not fenced and poster property as required by state law, that gas facilities were not provided and that refuse was found accumulated in one point without being covered.

It also stated that refuse was not being compacted and covered each day, that the covering of refuse that was covered was insufficient and did not meet the requirement of a six-inch depth.

The findings also stated that the edges of fills were not sealed and that the covering operation was under way at the time of the inspection, although such is permitted by the law.

The letter stated that gas facilities were being dumped in standing water pools because excavators were being made below the water line, also prohibited by state law.

In addition, it said, under ground fires, apparently caused by spontaneous combustion in earlier fills, were under way. The letter stated that new excavations should be made instead of making new fills over old ones.

Troeckler said last week that he considers the matter now in the hands of the state. Donham said, however, that the state health department is so turned with work that more effective enforcement of control regulations can be achieved through passage of local control regulations that could be enforced locally.

Stand in Wheat Field

Troeckler said he is highly in favor of the plan for a county incinerator and landfill if it can mean strict enforcement of privately owned landfills upon which nearly all communities now depend for disposal of refuse and rubbish. Until new facilities for disposal can be provided, it is difficult to do anything about the private landfills, it was pointed out.

In addition to Donham, the county board committee consists of Art Braundmeier of New Douglas, Carl Buehler of Granite City, J. J. Granich of Highland and Ray Berg of Marine.

The committee has been making its inspections and considering plans for county legislation in conjunction with the county's zoning and building department headed by Jack Clifford. Clifford repeatedly has reported that action against violators of efficient landfill operations is ineffective due to lack of local control legislation.

William Thomas, 65, Dies of Heart Ailment

William Thomas, 65, of 2929 Madison avenue, died at 12:30 a.m. Monday in St. Elizabeth Hospital where he had been a patient 11 days. Death was due to a heart ailment.

Mr. Thomas was born in Elwood, Ind., but had lived most of his life in Granite City, coming here in 1908. He was employed at Granite City Steel Co. for 46 years until his retirement last March. He was an electrician foreman at the plant.

He was a member of Masonic Lodge 835, A.F.A.M., Scottish Rite, Ainal Temple, the Low Twelve Club and Compacts, East St. Louis.

Mr. Thomas is survived by his wife, Mrs. Sara Thomas; three sons, William of Belleville, David of Granite City and James of Florissant, Mo.; a daughter, Miss Betty Lee Thomas of Granite City; a brother, Harold Thomas of Granite City, and six grandchildren.

Funeral services are given in today's obituary column.

Sheriff Appeals For Merit Plan, Halts Beer Sale

Strongly urging a merit system for deputies in a statement yesterday, outgoing Sheriff Barney Fraundorf warned that "I am going to enforce the laws no matter where or by whom they are violated, to the extent that I can, up until my last day in office."

Discussing actions by deputies to stop a bingo game in the State Park area June 26, when Fire Chief Robert Strackeljohn allegedly was announcing numbers, an old bait beer sales near the Tri-City Speedway Sunday, Fraundorf said that in both cases hostile comments were heard that the sheriff's term of office ended in December and that the deputies would see to it that the deputies would be around after that, either as deputies or as citizens.

"These things show we need a merit system for the sheriff's deputies in Madison county immediately," Fraundorf told the Press-Record.

"The Board of Supervisors should take another look, a serious look, at the merit system proposal, which has been held by the Madison County Committee for the past six months."

"Action must be taken now, whether it is taken will be up to the board. At any rate, as long as I am sheriff, political sanction for illegal activities is going to avert action by my office."

"I am going to enforce the laws. A merit system, however, if properly initiated, could increase the enforcement capability of the sheriff's office to many times what it is today."

Brandt Elected to County Bar Position

William Brandt of Granite City was elected vice-president of the Madison County Bar Association at its annual meeting Thursday night in the courthouse at Edwardsville. Donald C. Rikli of Highland was named president.

Advisory Board Tours Hospital

Ten members of the advisory board of St. Elizabeth Hospital and their wives were guests of the hospital staff for an inspection tour of hospital facilities following a dinner in the cafeteria.

A highlight of the tour was an inspection of the operating room. The guests donned caps, gowns, masks and "boobies."

There were short talks by Sister Mary Thomas, hospital administrator; John Dreves, public relations director, and A. C. Stever, president of the advisory board.

Other such tours are being planned for groups, clubs and individuals.

Mrs. Diane Karmagis, Madison, obtained a divorce from James Karmagis, Madison, in a decree signed Friday by Circuit Judge Joseph Downing in St. Clair County.

She was granted sole custody of a minor child, and he was ordered to make support payments currently due.

The couple was married July 1961, in East St. Louis and separated Aug. 2, 1964. She alleged adultery.

Stretches Out In Street

An elderly Granite City man who stretched out on the pavement in the southbound lane in the 2500 block of Madison avenue was picked up by police yesterday. He was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital for treatment.

Police said the man laid down in front of an auto but was not struck.

Propes Renamed Head Of Boilermakers 530

Clarence Propes was installed Friday for the fifth term as president of the Boilermakers Local 530, which represents about 300 workers at General Steel Industries and 25 employees at Granite City Metal Decorating Co.

The installation ceremony was held at the Labor Temple and was attended by about 60 members. A luncheon was served.
